The Clerk then read the following : RICHMOND, VA., February 12, 1886.

High Michael President of the Board of Addermen of the City of Richmond:

Bear Sir.—The undersigned most respectfully request and they desire you to call a meeting of the said Board of Addermen within five days from date, for the purpose of reconsidering the vote taken at the last necting of said Board upon the ordinance to restore the pay of city officials and employers to that of 1878.

Mr. Dickenson asked that the rules be suspended. As there were not a sufficient number of members present to reconsider the vote, he moved that the ordinance be brought up as a new ordinance. He spoke kindly and favor-ably of all the officers and employees of city, and thought it nothing but simple justice to restore the pay of the city officials to what it was six years

PAVORED RESTORATION. Mr. Chaffin concurred in the remarks of Mr. Dickerson. He was not a can-didate for re-election, but before he went out of office he hoped it would be leasure of the Council to restore the 10 per cent.

Mr. Williams also favored the restoration of the original wages and salaries, and suggested several special increases, which Mr. Dickerson, who offered the ordinance, accepted. THE SUM INVOLVED.

Mr. Glasgow (Mr. Page in the chair) thought the finances of the city in such a condition that deliberate action should be taken in regard to a question requiring an additional appropriation of about $40,000. The city is not living within its income, is not reducing its floating debt, and the amount to be derived from reassessments is already appropriated for city purposes. He thought the matter should be looked at with open eyes, and he favored the appointment of a special committee to inquire into this matter thoroughly, asceptain its matter. quire into this matter thoroughly, asertain its merits, and restore salaries where they are deserved. Mr. Dickerson expressed surprise at the remarks of Mr. Glasgow. " This ordinance has not been hid under a bushel. Before it was offered I talked with the gentleman in regard to it, and several suggestions made by him I ac-

Mr. Chaffin, chairman of the com-mittee to whom was referred the reso-lution as to the most economical mode of doing the work in the street and health departments, submitted the re-port of his committee, which recom-mended that the work be continued as at present, and not be done by contract.
It also recommended that the resolution adopted by the Common Council
